We are still not confident about some of our provincial total checklist numbers. We appreciate being corrected or updated by any of our readers. When doing so, please identify your source of information. Thanks.

In November, we'll be reviewing location lists, big day lists and other miscellaneous types of records.

The next set of reporting forms will also be included with our November issue.

If you have any updating you wish reflected in our November issue, please make it available by Sept. 25th.

More statistics follow on the next page.
